

Rahsaan Liddell

Founder | Education Entrepreneur | Global Education Strategist

Chicago-based founder building community-rooted global education infrastructure.

Founder & Executive Director, Global Pathways Education & Publishing

Founder, Mandarin & Culture Studio

Founder, Global Pathways Cultural Foundation

Contact: RahsaanLiddell@GlobalPathwaysEducation.com

Professional Bio

Rahsaan Liddell is a Chicago-based education entrepreneur and founder of Global Pathways Education & Publishing and the Mandarin & Culture Studio. After spending 10 years working in China, he returned to Chicago to expand Mandarin access and global literacy in underserved communities.

He was recognized by the Sichuan Provincial Administration as a Distinguished Foreign Expert and honored for volunteer leadership during the 2008 Sichuan earthquake.

Today, he leads a growing afterschool Mandarin program, develops structured student internship pathways, and builds institutional partnerships that connect local communities to global opportunity.

Founder Focus Areas

- Community-based Mandarin education
 - Global literacy access in underserved communities
 - Afterschool education infrastructure
 - Internship and resume-building pipelines
 - Cross-cultural engagement between Chicago and China
-

Selected Media & Appearances

- Chicago Teachers Union Member Spotlight
- Higher Learning TV Network

- CCTV, China
 - Gathering of the Griots, Soul of Chicago Book Fair
-

Organizations & Affiliations

- Global Pathways Education & Publishing
 - Mandarin & Culture Studio
 - Global Pathways Cultural Foundation
 - Chicago Teachers Union
 - Chicago Bears
 - DePaul University
-

